

Using Brigshaw's Alternate Word Template

1. To use Google templates, make a copy of the template and save it into your own user space.

2. Then create your document using your new copy.
3. To use this template and add a title double click the header, double click the title box and add your own text.

4. When the text is added click "Save and Close" and then write your document.